

State bans gill nets along Hancock beaches

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

The State Commission on Wildlife, Fisheries and Parks voted Wednesday to ban gill and trammel nets within 1,500 feet of the county shoreline, from the Bay Bridge to Bayou Cadet (Caddy), effective October 1.

Bureau of Marine Resources (BMR) public relations spokesperson Ron Grove said BMR recommended the 1,500-foot from shoreline option to the commission because it was the only option that pleased both the board of supervisors and the fishermen.

The three options presented by BMR during a public hearing held in Hancock County on August 20 were:

Option 1, prohibit gill netting from the Bay St. Louis car bridge (Highway 90) to the north banks of Bayou Cadet (Caddy);

—Option 2, limit gill netting to 1,500 feet from the above stated area's shoreline; and —Option 3, prohibit gill netting to 750 feet from the shoreline, except from May 15 to September 15, when the net distance would be increased to 1,200 feet from the shoreline.

The action taken by the commission, Grove reported, was to adopt the second proposal.

Hancock County Board of Supervisor president Ronald Cuevas stated, "That's really good."

"This will improve the safety on the beaches and it will be especially helpful in conjunction with our renourishment and expansion plans for the beaches."

"I think that this is what we ultimately decided upon."

Bay council recommends gaming regulation changes

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Bay St. Louis city council adopted a set of 21 recommendations about the state's proposed gaming regulations Tuesday during a special meeting.

City zoning project manager Jules Lagarde and city gaming attorney Donald Rafferty presented their recommendations to the board at a workshop meeting Tuesday.

After hearing and discussing the recommendations for nearly 2½ hours, the council heard public comments, then took a break while Lagarde made the necessary changes in the first draft of the recommendations and put the document into the form of a council resolution.

When Lagarde had the final draft ready, the council called a special meeting and passed the resolution that encompassed the recommendations, asked that the resolution be both telefaxed and sent by Federal Express to the State Gaming Commission in Jackson, then adjourned the meeting to September 3, 7 p.m.

Casino Enterprises withdraws license application; Mardi Gras Casino gets preliminary site approval

And then there was one. Casino Enterprises Inc. formally withdrew its application for a gaming license in Hancock County Tuesday, according to State Gaming Commission director Royal Walker Jr. Their withdrawal leaves only one developer currently applying for a license.

That developer, Mardi Gras

Casino, received preliminary site approval Wednesday on the Pete Fountain property at the foot of the Hwy. 90 bridge.

Walker said that means simply that the gaming commission reviewed the site approval application and has ruled that the site meets the state requirements as set forth in the Gaming Control Act of 1990.

"This approval doesn't waive any other requirements — city, county, Bureau of Marine Resources, Corps of Engineers, etc. — that the developer must meet," he emphasized.

Casino Enterprises Inc. had an option to purchase property next to the railroad bridge across from Merchant's Bank. President Bernard Goldstein, currently operating his office from Iowa, was quoted in the Sun-Herald as saying Tuesday

Walker receives Bay council's suggestions

BY TRACI BONNEY

State Gaming Commission director Royal Walker Jr. said Wednesday that the commission had received a set of Bay St. Louis city council recommendations that were telefaxed to Jackson that morning.

Walker said the recommendations about proposed gaming regulations were put into a file with other proposals. Deadline for making comments or suggestions is 5 p.m. today, he added.

The file's contents will be reviewed over the next two to three weeks, Walker explained. At the end of that period, the gaming commissioners will receive copies of all the comments, along with a summary of their contents.

Once upon a time, Sally may have sold sea shells by the sea shore, but today, Pearl's, Jean-

SHOPLIFTING

Bay St. Louis Police Investigator David Parker reported the arrest Friday of a Bay St. Louis resident on a shoplifting charge.

Parker said Jonathan Shaffer, 30, of 160 Sheila Drive, was charged with shoplifting after Majik Market (at the intersection of Hwy. 90 and Washington) reported the theft August 16 of two 12-packs of Miller Lite. The suspect was reported to have fled on foot after allegedly taking the beer.

According to Parker, Shaffer was incarcerated in the Hancock County jail because of a charge of shoplifting brought against him by the Waveland Police Department when the convenience store manager identified him as the suspect.

Shaffer remains incarcerated under a $500 bond for the Bay St. Louis charge, Parker added.

Telethon to benefit MDA

BY JANET MCQUEEN

Volunteers will man phone lines in Waveland this weekend to accept pledges to assist in the fight against muscular dystrophy.

Chairman Louie Smolensky hopes to top last year's fund-raising total of $22,000.

"I hope the public will continue to be generous, even though times may be harder this year. Small pledges are welcome," said Smolensky.

"The money stays in our area. Through the generosity of Coast residents, we now have a clinic in Gulfport."

"Anyone needing assistance may contact me for referral," he said.

The Muscular Dystrophy Association telethon is sponsored annually in Waveland by the Waveland Civic Association. Smolensky has chaired the fund-raiser for five years.

Telephones will be set up at Charlie Henderson Ford on Highway 90 beginning at 6 p.m. on Sunday. Volunteer operators will accept pledges until 6 p.m. Monday (Labor Day).

Volunteers are still needed to answer the phones, said Smolensky, and everyone is welcome to help, whether he can give one hour or several.

To call in a donation, or to volunteer your time, call 467-9005. Persons in Long Beach or Gulfport may call 864-3837.

The Bay St. Louis and Waveland Fire Departments will conduct roadblocks this weekend to collect contributions for MDA.

"Anyone wishing to make comments in writing has until 5

In another matter, the commission decided Wednesday not to waive background checks on gaming development stockhol-

He said the commission had been given that authority, but decided not to waive the checks in the interest of being thorough with their investigations.

reported, there is talk of a city annex building to be built in the future, which would house a meeting area on the ground level, but there are no definite plans at this time.

"For now," Boh added, "arrangements would have to be made as needed."

The City of Waveland has most all of its facilities located on the ground level with the exception of voters registration.

Waveland City Secretary Betsy Phillips said, "Should someone need to register to vote and is unable to ascend the stairs then we go downstairs to them."

Board attorney Gerald Gex searched his law books and found a statute where it directs a public agency to make such facilities accessible "when possible."

Gex assured, should someone need to attend a board of supervisors meeting, arrangements would be made so that individual could attend.

County Circuit Clerk Pam Metzler remarked that in the jury process, a person who is handicapped could request dismissal from the constitutional duty because of the lack of accessible access to the second floor court room.

To Metzler's recollection, "No juror has insisted the right to serve, but should one do so," she said, "we would have that person physically carried."

"We have never denied anyone the right to serve," she added. "Most people request to be excused."

Though county and city officials profess knowledge of the lack of accessibility for the handicapped, not one has a current plan to build or add an elevator or ramp to either of the three historical facilities.

Gex assured, should someone need to attend a board of supervisors meeting, arrangements would be made so that individual could attend.

County Circuit Clerk Pam Metzler remarked that in the County government is a more complex job today.

"QUOTEABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

Apparently we are having an influx of vehicles in the area with only one headlight.

I even see them on my way to the walking track in the mornings which is a very short distance from my home.

One morning I saw an auto with a light out, and next there was a pickup and then another car.

A couple of days ago I saw two vehicles, one behind the other, on my way home from the grocery with lights not working.

Many motorists are frightened about the fact that there are motorists who drive our highways and roadways with only one headlight.

In recent weeks I have also had some folks mentioning how they are aware of the increased number of vehicles in the area with only one headlight on our highways and roadways.

This is a dangerous practice, and really against the law, unless you are on a motorcycle.

Motorists should on occasion check their headlights as well as the tail lights because they all play a very important role in roadway safety.

Those driving vehicles with only one headlight are also taking the risk of being ticketed by law officers for operating a vehicle with improper equipment.

The cost of a citation far exceeds the cost of a replacement light.

Folks should not forget the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Morning Edition Friday, 7:30 at the Civic Center on Longfellow Road.

The program, sponsored by The Peoples Bank, will be presented by the Hancock County Historical Society on the county's history.

Cindy Vernon, chamber executive director, reports the Morning Edition's program seems to be of interest to many, and extra seating has been arranged.

The program is to last for one hour.

I hope to see you at the Morning Edition.

Louie Smolensky is really getting things rolling for the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon which will be held from 6 p.m. Sunday through 6 p.m. Monday.

The local fund drive is sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association, and the local headquarters will once again be at Charlie's Ford at the Bay-Waveland line.

Smolensky reports he can still use more volunteers to handle the telephones, as the local drive will be for a 24-hour period.

A volunteer need only do an hour or so, and just call some friends to get them to make a pledge to the Muscular Dystrophy Drive which is held nationwide.

Last year the Waveland Civic Association raised $22,000 with pledges and contributions. Some held special fund raisers for the telethon.

Anyone interested in helping may call Louie at 467-9005, or 864-3837 for those residing in Long Beach or Gulfport.

Good luck, Louie, and I hope you break last year's record.

Dear Editor:
I would like to commend Mr. Bill Eslick for his comments at the August 20 Bay St. Louis City Council meeting and his recent letter to the editor.

I am glad one resident has the courage to stand up and voice his dissent with dockside gambling, although it apparently fell on deaf ears. Such is the state of our city council!

I also encourage others to write to Mr. Royal Walker Jr., director of the Gaming Commission and voice your concerns. IN CONGRESS

By Rep. Gene Taylor

Taylor condemns Soviet coup

On Monday morning, Aug. 19, Americans awoke to discover the Soviet Union under siege.

Soviet tanks and armored personnel carriers rumbled into the center of Moscow in an attempt by hard-liners to grab the reins of central power.

Co-leaders had established control of communication centers, the Soviet Military and several Baltic republics. But the reckless coup failed in its attempt for control over the masses of Soviet people who opposed the takeover. Democracy unleashed is a very powerful force.

Since the coup's failure, the U.S. must now send the Soviet Union a strong and unambiguous message. The United States must stand firmly with the Soviet Union in its search for freedom and democracy.

Restoring President Mikhail Gorbachev to power and the continuance of the reform movement in the Soviet Union is of great importance to America's quest for world peace.

We must condemn the military leaders, Vice President Gennady Yanayev and the eight-member State Committee who plotted the takeover. These reactionary forces took advantage of a weak and struggling nation.

In their lust for power, the coup leadership has spoken. The Soviet people have shown they want drastic political, economic and social changes.

However, these changes can't take place quick enough. Until the legally elected Soviet officials resume the normal operation of government, overcoming the obstacles created by the coup attempt will be slow and tedious.

Since Gorbachev's return to power, the Republics should find the independence they so desperately seek. With the signing of the new Union Treaty, they will be allowed the authority to govern themselves more freely. Each will, for example share joint responsibilities for Soviet foreign and defense policies. New tax arrangements will be established and the Republics will exercise far greater control over the resources and property within their borders.

The coup failed. Reform, democracy and freedom have prevailed.

Do you feel we have adequate facilities for the handicapped?

"No. The court house is not wheelchair accessible, and I feel the supervisors should delegate the funds to come into compliance with the federal edicts."

Hancock awarded $409,500 EDA grant

Hancock County has been awarded a $409,500 U.S. Economic Development Administration grant for improvements to Calgon Carbon Corp., located within the Port Bienville Industrial Park in Hancock County.

Senators Trent Lott and Thad Cochran said the grant would be used for waste water collection, rail service and water projects.

"Existing public services and access facilities to Calgon will be greatly improved with this grant," Lott said. "Continued development of the $60 million, 98-acre Calgon Carbon facility will help Bay St. Louis and Hancock County by promoting jobs for the future.

"We are very pleased that EDA has taken this positive action to help promote economic development and job opportunities in Hancock County," Cochran said.

Specifics of the program are:

—Railway access: 730 linear feet of track, switching equipment, two road crossings and related drainage improvements.

—Water distribution/fire protection system: 2,380 linear feet of 8-inch pipe, two hydrants and meter connections.

—Sewer collection system: 2,450 linear feet of 6-inch force main, and an 150-gpm lift station.

—Effluent line: 7,750 linear feet of low pressure 14-inch pipe, including 6,200 linear feet underground, 650 feet elevated and related road crossings.

—Engineering: surveying, design, inspection and related project support.

The new Pearl River Calgon Carbon plant, scheduled to open Jan. 1, 1992, will produce activated carbon. It will be the largest plant of its kind in the South, Lott said.

Coin show planned in Meridian

The Meridian Area Coin Club will host its 27th annual Coin and Currency Show and Sale Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 7-8 at the Holiday Inn Northeast at Interstate 20 and 59.

In addition to coins and currency, there will be many other collectibles such as stamps, jewelry, baseball and other sports cards, gems and minerals, and tokens.

Tate seeks re-election to state Senate

Margaret Tate

Margaret "Wootsie" Tate is seeking re-election as District 47 state senator.

As a senator, Tate has had 18 bills passed into law, has co-sponsored several more and has voted for pro-life amendments.

Bills sponsored or co-sponsored by Tate that were passed into law include those related to agriculture, aquaculture ventures, economic development, insurance, health matters, teacher raises, exemption of religious institutions from use taxes, arson reporting, licensing hospice programs, waste and wastewater treatment and disposal.

She currently serves as chairman of the Senate Insurance Committee. Tate is a member of the Senate Finance, Public Health and Welfare, Environmental Quality and Water Resources, Corrections, Forestry and Labor committees. She also is a Legislative Liaison Board Member of the Uninsurable Health Insurance Pool.

Her professional affiliations include the National Conference of Insurance Legislators, American Legislative Exchange Council, the Governor's Task Force to Revamp Family and Youth Court System and the National Council for Arson Control.

Tate said, "In making my formal announcement for re-election as your senator representing District 47 in the Mississippi State Senate, I ask you to consider the future of Mississippi, the legislation passed to secure our future and who is the most qualified and dedicated candidate to represent you, the people."

"People issues" are what my campaign is all about. For the record, I've supported lower car tags, initiative and referendum, consumer protection issues, lower insurance and expanded health care for not just four years, but all eight years I've served in the Mississippi Legislature. Education, conservation, fire protection and disease control are at the top of my priority list.

"In representing you, I will introduce, sponsor and work for legislation to continue Mississippi's progress in providing a dynamic economic development climate, to give you the power of initiative and referendum, to lower car tags and personal property taxes, to protect consumers, to provide the working class with affordable health insurance, to protect you from AIDS infection and to give our infants and children the finest education and health care available in any state."

James Overstreet runs for District 46 Senate seat

James Overstreet of Diamondhead has announced his candidacy for state senator District 46.

Overstreet, a Republican, is a Mississippi native. The 33-year-old candidate has been a Coast resident for nine years.

An engineer for nine years, he received his bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Mississippi State University in 1981. He was among the first members of the Diamondhead Water and Sewer Improvement Board, which preceded the present water and sewer district.

Overstreet, who has been active in several political campaigns, said he has a thorough knowledge of state issues and of the legislative/judicial process.

Points in his platform include preserving the state flag; opposing city annexations without the consent of those affected; opposing tax increases of any kind; supporting private schools; opposing forced busing; supporting raising the speed limit on four-lane highways to 65 miles an hour; increasing attorney involvement in serving jury duty; stopping the gerrymandering of voting districts to serve special interest groups; and reducing the size of the House and Senate.

Overstreet said he also thinks the state could make more efficient use of the Employment Service office, and that he wants to see a 60 percent majority vote enforced for passage of bond issues and city annexations.

He stated, "I will oppose the liberal Jackson/Dukakis style of the Democratic party as a conservative Republican.

"I am not running as a professional politician or a professional bureaucrat. I am running as a conservative Republican trying to cut through the bureaucracy and streamline state government for the benefit of the people and not trying to perpetuate the job for a lifetime."

COOKING UP A STORM

By Katy McGuire
Caire

With the big, last-fling-of-the-summer holiday, Labor Day weekend, almost upon us, we're all searching our minds and our larders for good things to fix and to eat, aren't we?

Every hostess needs an "old reliable" or two, or more, in her culinary repertoire, even when the men of the house take over the barbecue duties.

Here is one of my "reliables"—Shrimp Mousse, easily made and delicious. I've made it for buffet suppers, for luncheons, and served it even as the star of the appetizer table or tray, severed with toast chips or crackers, to help stave off hunger pains while awaiting the piece de resistance from the barbecue pit or grill. Here's:

SHRIMP MOUSSE
1 cup shrimp, chopped
1 can tomato soup, undiluted
3 small packs Philadelphia Cream Cheese

2 Tbsp. gelatin, unflavored
3/4 cup finely chopped celery
3/4 cup finely chopped bell (green) pepper
2 Tbsp. grated onion

1 cup mayonnaise

Mash the cream cheese in the soup, and heat in a double boiler until the cheese is melted, and the mixture quite hot. Soak the gelatin in a cup of cold water for 5 minutes, then add to the soup mixture. When the mixture starts to thicken, add the remaining ingredients and season with salt, pepper, hot pepper sauce and Worcestershire to your taste.

Pour into oiled mold, and refrigerate for several hours or overnight. Turn out on a platter, on a bed of lettuce. Garnish with ripe olives, as well as green olives, and parsley, and whatever other embellishments come to mind, such as stuffed eggs or broccoli flowerets, and so on.

Serve the mayonnaise separately. At times I like to add well-minced parsley and green onions to the mayonnaise, or scatter a little across the top of the serving bowl or cup. At times, I substitute crabmeat or lobster for the shrimp. And, I often add a little Creole mustard to the mayonnaise for extra tang.

You may use canned crabmeat or shrimp, but, if you do so, be sure to rinse, then squeeze fresh lemon juice over, to get rid of the canned taste.

Lee vies for District 47 seat

Ezell Lee has announced his intention to run for state senator in District 47.

Lee is a combat veteran having served in the Korean War with the Mississippi National Guard's 173rd Pontoon Bridge Company from Picayune. He served from the Guard in 1985, but continues to maintain memberships in the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He attended Pearl River Junior College, where he earned an associate degree; the University of Southern Mississippi, where he earned a bachelors degree; and William Carey College, where he earned a law degree in administration and supervision. He also completed post-graduate work at UCM.

Lee's education was supplemented by membership in the Sea Scout Master.

He said, "As a former teacher, coach and administrator, I have used my education in order to pass values and learning to our children. Both through their physical development and their intellectual education. My four sons have attended schools and colleges in Mississippi."

Lee served on the board of the Picayune Separate School District for five years, and the House Representatives, District 47. While in the House, he served on several committees, including Education, Select Education, Transportation, Cemetery Affairs, Public Building and Grounds, Appropriations and Corrections, and House Management.

He also attended the National Legislative Conference as a delegate.

Lee said, "It has been my experience that individuals are often able to offer special insights into governmental matters. In fact, several bills which I successfully introduced, that were signed into law, were developed as a result of ideas which were voiced by my constituents.

"My position in business helped me to understand the value of a healthy environment for business and the need that this district has for high quality employment opportunities for its citizens.

"The forests, fields, streams and lakes of southern Mississippi have been important to me as a hunter and fisherman since I was a barefoot child."

Lee commented that he is active in his church, working and serving with people and organizations for the benefit of the less fortunate.

"I try to be guided by my deep, strong belief in God through troubled times and difficult decisions."

"As citizens of the United States, we are blessed with the fact that this world has to offer. I have been fortunate to have spent my life with the people from whom I have learned so much and who have been of great benefit to my family—in school and church, in war and peace, in business and politics."

State seeks 20 Bay, Waveland residents for forgotten refunds

State Treasurer Marshall Bennett is beginning a major effort to locate some 14,000 Mississippians who have more than $7.5 million coming to them from Unclaimed Property Accounts reported to the Mississippi Treasurer's Office from various banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, credit unions, and other businesses.

State law requires that the State Treasurer receive these funds and publish the names every three years.

"We are working hard to reunite people with their lost or forgotten money. Some individuals are due over $5,000 and all others over $100 each." A 16-page tabloid has been published as part of this 1991 effort to locate missing owners or heirs. It will be available at more than 250 public libraries and in all 82 county Chancery Clerks' offices.

"In the past, unclaimed and dormant accounts in financial and other institutions were either charged off to the institution with the owner or heirs losing their rights to the property; or the account was decreased over the years through various charges. Dormant accounts and unclaimed funds then accrued to the benefit of the holding company."

With the passage of the Unclaimed Property Act, these institutions now must report and turn over to the State Treasurer any unclaimed accounts covered by law.

"There is no time limit on filing a claim. The State never assumes ownership of any of these funds but rather holds them in custody available for claim by the rightful owner."

For more information, contact the State Treasurer's Office, Unclaimed Property Division, P. O. Box 138, Jackson, MS 39205. "We hope everyone is a winner," Bennett said.

Citizens express gaming concerns to Bay Council

BY TRACI BONNEY

Concern for resident safety and local business stability underscored the few minutes of public comments at Tuesday's Bay St. Louis city council workshop.

The council, after discussing 21 recommendations dealing with proposed gaming regulations, allowed audience members to comment if they wished.

The first of three speakers was Rev. Dwyn Mounger. He told the council, mayor and city advisers that he appreciated them a bit more after listening to the nearly 2½ hours of discussion preceding the public forum.

He asked two questions concerning the proposed gaming regulations and their ability to deal with safety of local residents and possible increases in the suicide rate locally when people lose in the casinos. His third question involved in city plans to deal with anticipated increases in crime rates.

Concerning the crime rate, city zoning project manager Jules Lagarde told Mounger, "I can't make any predictions, but I'll tell you right now, man to man, face to face, that I, Mr. Rafferty, the council and the mayor are doing what we feel is the best we can to plan to prevent as much of the problems as possible."

Council member Jim Rutherford asked Mounger if he would oppose a Disneyworld-type facility in the area.

When Mounger said he wouldn't, Rutherford suggested Mounger compare crime rates in Las Vegas, Nev., and Orlando, Fla., near Disneyworld. Rutherford said the statistics he has seen show that Orlando has a higher crime rate.

Mayor Edward Favre pointed out that New Orleans has "a tremendous crime rate without gambling," and said he thinks the crime rate should not be linked to the activity, but simply to the fact that large numbers of people are concentrated in an area.

Addressing Mounger's question about city plans to deal with a possible increase in the crime rate, Favre reminded the audience that the city's local and private bill allows the levying of up to $2.50 per person boarding a gaming vessel. He said this boarding fee may generate up to $2.5 million in the first year.

"Even if we have to quintuple our police force, that would cost less than $1 million a year," Favre stated. "If we have the people come in, we'll have the expense. But if we have the people, we'll also have the revenue to cover the expense."

Next to speak was Allyson Keller. She told the council that casinos in Nevada are allowed to subsidize such services as food and beverages. As an example, she said a casino restaurant might charge only $5 for a steak dinner.

Keller said she and other merchants are concerned that if such subsidizing is allowed in Mississippi, merchants (especially restauranteurs) in towns with gambling may find themselves undercut by the gaming facilities. She asked the council to consider addressing the matter in their recommendations to the State Gaming Commission.

While the council members listened to her comments and agreed they don't want to see local merchants forced out of business by being undercut, the council's final recommendations did not include regulation of service subsidization.

The final speaker was Otis Winnard, who lives on Beach Blvd. near proposed gaming sites. He told the council he was opposed to gambling in the community, and especially on the beachfront.

Shells

Margaret Moran, Katie's daughter and present owner said, "My mother's pralines are still in demand."

"She makes both the creamy and the sugary pralines from her own recipe."

Moran reported that Puliziano (Katie's) has sold pralines to many celebrities, including Tex Ritter and Jimmy Durante.

Taillac (Louise's) claimed to have traveled to Washington, D.C. in 1976 by invitation of the Smithsonian Institute in order to make candy for President Ford.

"I would really like to go make candy for Barbara Bush. I like her."

To combat the increased competition created by the growth of Highway 90 and the decrease of road traffic caused by the completion of the I-10, changes to several of the stores have been tried.

Louise's has expanded her business to include a wide array of pottery. Joyce's now sells shells wholesale to stores from Brownsville, Texas to New Jersey. Both stores claimed an increase in business through the changes.

Pearl's and Brenda's have not been as fortunate. Their business has dwindled along with the size of their outdoor shell piles.

Like Pearl's and Brenda's, Jeanne's is for sale these days, but Garcia claims her reason for selling has nothing to do with the business. "I am better off today than ever before."

Jeanne's opened in 1969, and Garcia said prices in certain things have never changed. "We still sell bottle rockets for $2.50 a gross and sea shells, two for a dollar."

"I find we don't have the people coming through, but the money is better."

Fabian's in Long Beach broke the mold when Joyce (Pernicaro) Buquois gave her Bay St. Louis shop to her sister Eddie Cuevas, and moved to Long Beach, where she named her new shop in 1980, after her husband.

"He had such a pretty name, Fabian. It just sounds so musical."

Buquois said the move was to counter the lack of road business after the I-10 went through. "I felt the business would be better closer to Gulfport."

Fabian's has also expanded its merchandise to keep up with customer needs by including a full line of swimwear.

Though today the shell shops have decreased in number, each of the owners has expressed a gratitude for the many visitors who have stopped and wandered in wonder through the shelves of wares.

Garcia still corresponds with a couple from Canada, who stopped into Jeanne's one Christmas Day and stayed for dinner.

Katie's still mails pralines around the world.

Moran (Pearl's) still greets visitors coming from Louisiana and directs them to the first sands of the Mississippi Coast in Clermont Harbor.

The visual appearance of the shell shop can still make one close one's eyes and smell the salty waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

You just know, the beach is close by.

Joyce's Shells N' Gifts, established in 1937, is the oldest of the remaining shops

THE SEA COAST ECHO—THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1991-1B

TIME OUT

The Pass Christian VFW Post 5931 dart teams, the Vets and Stars & Stripes have moved up in standings as the new fall season begins.

Stars & Stripes will now play in the Platinum League West Division while the Vets compete in the Silver League D Division.

The first game of the season brought a tie for the Vets and a loss for the Stars and Stripes as they adjust to the heavier competition.

The Vets tied with Our Gang from Elks Lodge 606 in Biloxi 9-9.

Vets players Buck Fayard and Rip Vancourt tied for the men's high with 100 and Our Gang member Danny Williams claimed the men's high out with 38. The ladies top scores went to Vets players Nancy Vanatski with 85 for high score and Deanna Windom with 20 for the high out.

Stars & Stripes gave their best against the Avengers from the Pub Lounge out of Biloxi but finally conceded the night at 11-7.

Star & Stripes player Mel Garriga topped the men's high score with 101 and Avenger Ben Palmer took the men's high out with 18. The ladies' scores were claimed by Vi Benedict of the Avengers with 76 for the ladies' high score and 51 for the ladies' high out.

Tonight Stars & Stripes will travel to the Workmen's Lounge in Gulfport to take on the Push Overs, and the Vets will combat the Flaming Stars from the Rebel Lounge out of Gulfport in Pass Christian. Games begin at 7:30 p.m.

Returning to the Vets for this season is Nancy Vanatski while new players are Dianna Patton, Willie Scarborough and Steve Malley.

The Sea Witch Lounge in Pass Christian began the fall dart team season last Thursday with a win and a loss for its two Copper League teams.

The Sea Witch's Pirates beat the Acorns from Bayou Oaks in Gulfport 18-0.

Pirate members took the night in top scores with David Hanson, 121 for the men's high score; Jeff Doukas, 42 for the men's high out; and Sissy Brattain with both the ladies' high score, 98 and the ladies' high out, 4.

The Sea Nettles, the Sea Witch Lounge's second team, didn't do as well as their sibling team, losing 11-7 against the Make the Point team from the Goal Post Lounge in Gulfport.

Sea Nettle members claimed the men's scores with Dallas Clark with the men's high score of 108 and Floyde Crane with the men's high out of 19.

Make the Point members Joan Henderson shot 86 for the ladies' high score and Connie Bell claimed the ladies' high out with 47.

Tonight the two copper league teams of the Sea Witch Lounge must compete against each other on home turf. Points to launch at 7:30 p.m.

Local results for the August 17 races at the Mississippi Gulf Coast Checkered Flag Speedway are:

Rookie stock heat — Linus Haas, Kiln, first; Roger LaCoste, Kiln, third; Street stock heat — David Necaise, Bay St. Louis, third.

The Pass Christian Ladies' Golf Club was rained out of play Tuesday, so they held a Golf Towel for Low Net Over the Field awards luncheon.

The towel winners were Mamie Calmes and Ellie D'Antoni.

Elaine Reese and Heather Thomas prepared the luncheon for the lady golfers and a hot game of cards was reported to have held everyone captive for the rest of the day.

The Pass Christian Isles Labor Day Four-Ball Tournament will be August 31 and September 1.

Open to all interested golfers (men and women), the format is two-person team stroke play. Entry fee is $150 per team, which includes a luau and cook-out.

Tea-off times are 7:30 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. each day.

For more information, call the PCI pro shop at 452-3830.

Recreational boat fees in effect

New federal Recreational Vessel Fee regulations are now in effect and will be enforced by the U.S. Coast Guard in the near future.

"The fee, mandated by the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1991, applies to boats over 16 feet in length," said senior chief Joe Gibson, U.S. Coast Guard, New Orleans.

"We are having people call us to ask if the rule applies to the seven U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' flood control lakes in Arkansas and Mississippi," said Julie Marcy, Corps' Vicksburg District project resources manager.

"The rule does not affect our lakes, but does apply on some of the rivers in our district."

Anyone who needs more information concerning the fee, may place a toll-free call to get the details. For information on the Pearl River, Red River and the Louisiana portion of the Ouachita River should call 1-800-451-9148.

For information on the Mississippi River above Natchez, the Little Tallahatchie at Batesville, the Tallahatchie to Sardis Dam, the Yazoo River at Greenwood, the Tennessee and Tennessee-Tombigbee rivers, Pickwick Lake and Arkansas rivers should call 1-800-451-9148.

Task force sets fall shore sweep

The Mississippi Marine Trash Task Force has set the date for this fall's three-county Mississippi Coastal Cleanup for Saturday, Sept. 21 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Task force members anticipate close to 2,000 volunteers will be turning out to clean mainland and barrier island shorelines in the 1991 cleanup. Task force members will be launching an effort in the coming weeks to recruit volunteers for mainland waterfront areas.

During the organizational meeting Tuesday, Doug Hunt of the Gulf Islands National Seashore noted that all but a few sections of the barrier islands in the jurisdiction of the National Park Service have been adopted as part of a successful Adopt-A-Beach program.

"They have all been adopted except for two sections on the south shore of Petit Bois Island that are not easily accessible," Hunt said. "We would need hardy individuals or groups with a 22-foot boat or larger to adopt these sections. It would be a real adventure."

FISHIN' Y'ALL

By Jim Maness

Flounders, mackerel abound around piers, near beach

It's time to go fishin' y'all. I just know everyone is chomping at the bit to hear some gems of what went on at the "Bad Management Rascals" hearing on gill nets last week. But since turtles are notorious optimists, let's talk about the good things.

A huge, stupendous, I mean really big, leather medal with a gold hole goes to John and Chris Johnson of Waveland. These two gentlemen exhibited the finest values of our Gulf Coast citizens.

They stopped to check on a boat in distress way out by Creole Gap. Then, without hesitation, they towed the sick boat all the way across the Sound to safe harbor at Bordages Marina. I am told that they would not even take a soft drink for their trouble. Hats off to John and Chris Johnson of Waveland!

The fishin' reports for this week are very encouraging.

Daryl Martin of Picayune caught a four and one-half pound flounder this week in the surf by Farrar Street. He also said that he has caught a few large red fish by the rock piles in this area. The bait he found to be the best is a white-body beetle. Second best, Johnson Sprite.

Looks like all of the piers are producing flounders. The best bait is reported to be cacaho minnows no longer than three inches. If you use a bigger bait, the flat fish are just biting off the tail and otherwise not cooperating.

Quite a few sea habla espanol mackerel are starting to show up. They are jumping and playing right at the color change line off the beach. For those folks who know what I am saying, the straw is working like a charm. For those folks who don't know what I am saying, the story is so unbelievable that I will have to fill you in next week.

Jacks are chasing the mullet and hard tail in the area of Bayou Caddy. The key to finding the Jacks seems to be to wait till the wind lays down and the water glasses out. This seems to be the time when they get hungry and beat up the schools of bait fish big time.

Item of interest: Last Friday

two gill netters placed their net directly in the area that six boats were fishing. I mean right square in between the boats.

This was to the west of Bayou Caddy by the sand beach.

Later that night they were reportedly trying to sell their catch of undersize specks in area bar rooms for $1.50 a pound.

This week's wonderful wise words: Roofing is an honorable profession. I wonder if it is a prerequisite for deputy director.

Arise, Comrade turtle.

ON ETV

FLY-FISHING

Fly-fishing for bluegill and a tour of Picayune's Crosby Arboretum are featured on the next edition of Mississippi Outdoors, at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Aug. 29 on Mississippi ETV. The program will repeat at 6:15 a.m. Friday, Aug. 20 and at 5:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 31.

Host Melvin Tingle travels to Picayune to visit the Crosby Arboretum with staff botanist Chris Wells of Picayune. They examine the replicas of different habitats found in Mississippi that are displayed there, then visit a natural area that is preserved at the arboretum.

Mississippi's "dirty dozen" of most frequently collected items in 1990 were metal beverage cans, cigarette filters, foamed plastic pieces, glass pieces, plastic food bags/wrappers, plastic pieces, glass beverage bottles, plastic caps/lids, paper pieces, foamed plastic cups and plastic cups/utensils. Fifty-nine percent of the items collected were some form of plastic.

KILLING TIME

By Traci Bonney

It's that time of year again — parents reclaim their houses (for a few hours); teachers stock up on the headache reliever of choice; and students dig up their lists of "Why I didn't do my homework" excuses.

That's right, a new school year has started.

For me, it hasn't been too long since this time of year would find me fidgeting in a desk, trying to stay awake while a well-educated adult attempted to convince my classmates and me that our futures depended upon mastering the formula to determine the hypotenuse of a right-angle triangle.

Or worse yet, I would be fidgeting in a left-handed desk (my first in 12 years of classes) and trying to stay awake while my stomach growled the melody to "The Cafeteria Blues" — lunch was right around the corner — and my government teacher attempted to expound on the differences between communism and democracy as governmental systems.

Of course, school had its good memories, too — like hanging out with friends; having the lead in a drama club play; the French Club Christmas party; and our band blowing a certain rival school's band off the field during the halftime show.

What's your favorite bit of school-related nostalgia?

One co-worker of mine said her favorite memory of academia isn't a specific instance in her career as a student; it's a smell. To be specific, it's that smell of old glue and textbooks that always scented the air of her schools the first day back in class.

Another co-worker remembers fondly not her time in school, but her time outside and after school — the joyrides with friends in cars that they "borrowed," and the time she and several of her classmates cut classes at their all-girl Catholic school, went to a nearby all-boy Catholic school, pretended to be visiting from California and managed to get a tour of most of the school before they were caught.

I'm not sure I can pinpoint a specific "favorite memory." I have a collage of them: caroling with the Beta Club at Christmas; winning various awards; academic and non; dressing as an elf with several friends one year near Christmas; Homecoming Week activities throughout the years; humoring, along with the rest of a busload of band students, the entire marching and concert shows on the way to state band competition....

I suppose I could go on for years; after all, it took me four in high school and four more in college to live all those memories.

I'm not going to subject you to four years' worth of school day memories. (You're welcome.) My theory is that the memories are far more interesting to the one who experienced them the first time around than to other folks, except those rare few who love to hear about other people's lives.

Who knows, though? Maybe reading this has brought back some fond memory of yours.

At the least, maybe it will help you deal with the generation currently building their own memories. Maybe, just maybe, remembering your school days will help you cope with today's school days.

On the other hand, I'm not saying you should store the headache pills just yet.

Vernon attends Georgia seminar

Cindy Vernon, executive director of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, completed a week-long program of study at the Institute for Organization Management at the University of Georgia.

The Georgia Institute is one of seven similar educational programs for managers of non-profit organizations held at leading universities across the country.

The institute is a one-week-per-year, six-year-long work/study program. Participants use the time between annual sessions to implement on-the-job what they have learned and to prepare for the next session.

The activities for which these funds may be used are in the areas of housing, public facilities and economic development. More specific details regarding eligible activities, program requirements, and the rating system will be provided at a public hearing which will be held in the City Council Chambers, Bay St. Louis City Hall, 302 S. Second St., Bay St. Louis, Ms., Tuesday, September 3, 1991, 5 p.m. A second public hearing will be held Thursday, September 5, 3 p.m. at the same location.

The purpose of these hearings will be to obtain citizen input into the development of the application.

Young Tiger team faces tough schedule

BY TRACI BONNEY

Will the Tigers roar this year?

Bay High head football coach Rocky Gaudin isn't saying yet. Gaudin, in his second year as BHS head coach, acknowledges the team's improvement over last season's start, but declines to predict wins and losses at this point.

"We've come a long way in the program since this time last year, but we have a long way to go yet."

The team has worked hard in the off-season and over the summer. We're a lot stronger than we were, but the team is still very young. I have only six seniors in the starting lineup this season."

The lineup includes:

Offense — Center: Scott Asher, senior; Guards: Mark Murray, junior, and Jeff Hopgood, sophomore; Tackles: Miguel Smith, and Keith Corr, both sophomores; Tight end: Chad Strahan, junior;

Split end: Marcel Whavers, junior; Wingback: Floyd Lewis, junior; Quarterback: Trellis Haynes, senior; Fullback:

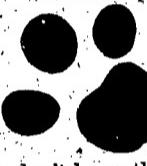

Jason Loiacano, senior; Tailback: Adrian Whavers or L.C. Curry, both juniors.

Defense — Nose tackle: Hopgood; Defensive tailbacks: Smith and Murray; Defensive ends: Chris Barlow, senior, and Jimmy Strong, junior; Linebackers: Brennan Comprettta, junior, and Dwayne Antoine, sophomore; Cornerbacks: Jamie Kingston, senior, and Gerrit Carver, junior; Safeties: Kris Roberts, senior, and Kevin Gillum, junior.

Returning starters include Hopgood, Corr, Marcel Whavers, Loiacano, Strong, Barlow, Antoine and Kingston.

"Our size is looking good. We have some small players, but overall we have pretty good size."

"We don't have the speed we would like, but then you never do."

"The bottom line is, we're making progress, but I can't tell how that's going to translate into wins and losses this year."

Among those returning to Bay High's football team is the coaching staff. Gaudin said the team has the same staff two consecutive seasons for the first time in several years.

"Even the kids are noticing. They're commenting on it, saying this is the first time in five or

St. Stanislaus team faces Ocean Springs this weekend

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Head coach Ken Lyons of St. Stanislaus High School intends to see his football team turn heads this year.

Picayune and Hancock are being predicted as the two teams that will make it to the top this year, Lyons explained, but with some good effort from SSC's linemen, "we may just catch them short."

"The question mark is whether our offensive and defensive linemen will come through."

Lyons said SSC is in good shape with quite a few veteran players returning this year.

Listed by Lyons as tried and tested men are: Quarterback Bill Dreher; running backs Trent Terrell and Mike Lee; fullback Tate Thriffiley; wide receiver Mickey Quinlan;

Offensive tackle Mark Cina; offensive guard Brett Heitzmann; defensive ends Kerry

Ken Lyons

Wittmann and Greg Altese; defensive end Claudio Rivero; and linebackers John Rutherford IV and Mike Davidge. Josh Yankowsky will start at center.

"It is the inexperienced players that concern a coach at the beginning of the season."

"After 31 years of coaching, I have learned to work on execution and repetition."

"The object is for everyone to know his job well and perform it as second nature."

"I feel good about the starters we have this year, but they are still untested."

Lyons said, he is hoping SSC can take Ocean Springs in the season Jamboree Friday, and then move on to another win against Gulfport the following week.

"If we can get those two under our belt, we will be on our way."

Lyons stated he expects Gulfport to be the strongest team on the schedule.

"We are an average-sized team."

"Personally, I don't worry about size. It is quickness, speed, execution, intensity and attitude that counts."

"In high school, I believe guys who weight in the 200-pound range are more than adequate."

"I have also heard that Bay High has improved and that they are physically big."

"Of course, Bay High is our big rival; hometown and all."

"The Gulf Breeze team out of Florida should be interesting, since they are a new team on the schedule."

"D'Iberville may surprise everyone this year."

"They used to be the football power."

"I suspect they may make a comeback."

Lyons reported that last year SSC made the playoff games and he would like to see the team "at least" repeat that performance.

"I think we are a little bit better than some people think we are. But time will tell."

Goals....

Everyone has goals or dreams they want to see happen. Some people actually achieve their goals through hard work, dedication, and motivation. Take for example, graduating from high school. It might not seem very important today, but once you're out in the "real world", you'll really appreciate your diploma. It's not just a piece of paper, it's security for your future. Ask yourself this: If you set goals, what's truly stopping you from reaching them? Having your high school education behind you will certainly make the road to success a little easier to travel on whether you brave the "real world" or continue your education in college.

Stay in school and when your name is called at graduation, turn that cap with pride!!!

Hancock looks forward to a winning '91 season

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Coach Irvin Favre said with the addition of Picayune and East Central schools to the 4A Division, he is anticipating an exciting upcoming year.

Division selection is determined by the enrollment size of the schools, he explained. "East Central picked up in enrollment this year, moving them up from 3A, while Picayune dropped from 5A."

Since practice only began two and a half weeks ago, Favre commented, it is difficult to make an assessment this early.

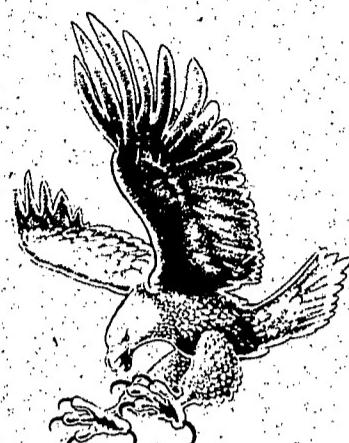

position.

"I feel good," Favre added, "though we have not yet been to battle."

"We could have a good football team if these young men come through."

As only time will tell, Hancock High School will play its first game of the season on Friday at George County.

Favre said he would be ready to announce first string line-ups next week. "I will have a better picture as we approach our first game."

"Because every year there is a turn over of so many people, we have to just wait and see if this crop is going to be good."

"Overall, we have a small aggressive team. Hopefully our speed will overcome our size."

"We have a few skilled players returning this year, which should help. Bobby Doyle, a linebacker, is one of the best. He may be the best on the Gulf Coast."

Last year the Hawks were 9-3 overall and were Division 8 Class 4-A champions with a 5-0 record. They defeated McComb in the state playoffs and lost to Laurel.

He said their game speed should also benefit by the return of running back Terrance Goff and receiver Jeremy Bennett.

Goff scored 17 touchdowns last season and gained more than 1,000 yards on offense.

Favre's son, Jeff, will follow his two brothers, Scott and Brett, at the quarterback

PRC team, coaching staff features new faces

When Pearl River Community College opens its 1991 football season at home against the Northwest Rangers, Saturday, August 31, be sure to have an official program handy.

One-half of the PRC coaching staff is new and all but one of the offensive starters are newcomers.

The 1990 Wildcats posted an 8-2 ledger and were in the South Division title race until the last game against Copiah-Lincoln. The Wildcats, under Mike Nelson, lost to Hinds and Co-Lin to fall into third place in the South, even though PRC ended up tied with the best overall record in the state.

The Wildcats can even boast of beating Itawamba, the eventual overall state champions.

Here in 1991 Nelson is gone. So are honorable mention All-Americans Michael Toefield on offense and Roy Wayne Jones on defense.

Nelson suffered a stroke days after coaching in the 1990 Mississippi Community College All-Star game, and even though he is recovering well, he resigned his post in early May.

That left the door open for new head coach Willie J. Coats, a very successful head master for the Hattiesburg High Tigers.

Coats, who has junior and senior college coaching experience, was named the top Wildcat in early summer and he has since been spending 18-hour days learning the ropes administratively for the Wildcats.

Returning Wildcat assistants are Bill Martin, Herbert Morris and Mike Humphreys. New assistants are Carlos Powell and Mitch Rodrique.

Powell, a former University of Southern Mississippi standout will coach the receivers, while Rodrique, a former USM assistant, will handle the offensive line.

On offense there are even more new faces. Toefield, the Wildcat running back who rewrote the PRC record book during his two years, moved on to Mississippi College.

The only returning offensive starter is Chris Lumpkin, 6'1"-270, offensive tackle from Carriere. The remaining players on the offensive line are young and inexperienced, by they are also big.

Starting now at center is Matt Blevins (6'2"-280) of Dothan, Alabama. At strong guard is Craig Weaver (6'3"-310) from Miami and at strong tackle is Shane Padgett (6'5"-280) from Oak Grove.

All are freshmen, however, Weaver had signed with the University of Florida and Padgett had inked with the Ole Miss Rebels.

Weaver, who made 17 on the ACT, needed an 18 to attend Florida, while Padgett decided during late summer that he wanted to play ball closer to home.

Lumpkin (6'2"-302) has the weak tackle position nailed down, however, he has been hurt during pre-season practice. At weak guard is sophomore tight-end turned offensive lineman Stacey Buckley of Columbia.

Buckley is the little guy on the line (6'3"-230) but according to Coats he is quick. "Moving Stacey from tight-end to the line was a big help to the team," said Coats. "I appreciate his acceptance of the change and his hard work at the position."

At tight-end is Wendell Magee, a 6'1"-220 lb. sophomore from Hattiesburg. Backing Magee is Donald Butler (6'2"-220) of Poplarville. Butler played for the Hornets in 1989.

Working at first string wideouts are Lloyd Dedeaux (5'10"-177) and Kyle Cook (6'1"-180) of Oak Grove.

PRC fall football schedule begins Aug. 31

Pearl River Community College will open its 1991 football season in Poplarville Saturday, Aug. 31 against the Northwest Rangers from Senatobia.

Jones will host the Wildcats in Laurel on Saturday, Sept. 7 to open South Division competition for both clubs. East Mississippi will visit Poplarville on Sept. 14 and Hinds will come calling Sept. 21.

Pearl River's longest away game of the year is against Itawamba in Fulton on Saturday, Sept. 28. The Wildcats will play Mississippi Gulf Coast away on Saturday, Oct. 5, however, the location has not been determined.

PRC's 1991 homecoming is scheduled for Saturday, October 12 against East Central in a 2 p.m. contest. The next two weeks, Pearl River will play on Thursday nights, taking on Holmes in Goodman on Oct. 17 and Southwest on Oct. 24 in Summitt.

The Wildcats' last regular game of the year is set for the Dobie Holden Stadium at home Saturday, Nov. 2 at 2 p.m. against Co-Lin.

The sophomore running backs include 5'6"-185 lb. Doug Johnson of Hattiesburg at tailback and Tracey Bullock (5'9"-201) of Columbia at fullback.

Tyrone Barnhart, a 6'-215 lb.

and Ray Wilson; and two from Pensacola, Lateef Travis and Dennis Clayton, were starters last year and they have been impressive in practice.

Moore (5'10"-230) is playing at inside linebacker. He has impressed Coats during pre-season. "I like him. He is a full-speed player," said Coats. "He's our defensive leader at this time."

Wilson (6'2"-210) is starting at strong safety, while Clayton (6'-275) is at nose guard. Travis (6'4"-241) is at a defensive end and Tyrone Clark (6'-220) of Hattiesburg is at an inside-linebacker position.

Larry Whigham (6'2"-208) of Hattiesburg, has the nod at free safety, while Bobby Pope (5'9"-175) is at right cornerback. At left tackle will be Wydell Jones (6'1"-279) of Hattiesburg.

Conrad Clarks a 5'11"-197 lb. freshman from Franklin, La. is the starter at left cornerback. Clarks is a freshman but he joined the PRC team this past spring.

Sean Bennefield (6'3"-205) of Hancock is starting at defensive end with James McGowan (6'1"-225) of Hattiesburg, and Isaiah Pullett (6'4"-255) of Baton Rouge right behind.

At right tackle is Jeremy Bounds (6'1"-250) of Picayune. Christopher Herbert (6'2"-285) of Pensacola is pushing Bounds at that position.

BHS Athletic Club boosts team spirit

BY JANET MCQUEEN

Since its formation last year, the Bay High School Athletic Club has striven to recognize the contributions of the students involved in a variety of sports.

The club's most ambitious project to date is the completion of the Bay High athletic field house, located directly behind the school at the end of the football practice field.

"The project is a good example of what can be accomplished when citizens work with the schools," said Athletic Club board member CoCo Loiacano.

The school board installed the slab and exterior metal walls for an estimated $25,000.

six years we've had the same coaches for two years."

The staff includes Joe Shaw, who has coached for 14 years, in charge of the backs; Walt Esslinger, with two years' experience, coaching the lines; and Stacey McRaney, entering his second year as a coach, in charge of receivers on offense, linebackers and defensive ends on defense.

The Tigers play 10 teams this season, six in district games and four in non-district competition.

"We have six tough district opponents, three at home and three away. The non-district games are all against rivals — Hancock, St. Stanislaus, Long Beach and Pass Christian.

"I chose the teams we're playing for a reason. Some coaches, when they're trying to build a team or they've just come off a low-win season, will drop some of the toughest opponents from the schedule. I didn't want to do that."

"The fans are paying to see good games. With our schedule, every week something is riding on the match — either a district game or a local rivalry."

Season passes on sale

Season passes for all 1991-92 Bay High Tiger sports events (except tournaments) are now on sale.

The pass entitles admission into all home games, including football, basketball and soccer, and includes membership in the Bay High Athletic Club.

Passes are adult, $20; student, $10; couple, $30; and family (with any number of students), $50. They may be purchased from any club member or at Loiacano's Health Club.

sports (except basketball) to use the gym to dress out. In the 70's, the junior high school (now Bay Middle School) was used for the football players to dress out. When the junior high moved, the football team began using the gym," said Loiacano.

The Athletic Club is still in need of financial assistance to complete the project. Anyone wishing to help may contact J. E. Loiacano at 467-2669 or Joe Von Antz at 467-4550.

Accomplishments during the last school year include:

Purchase of an ice machine and batting cage for the school;

Pre-game meals, half-time drinks and awards for the players;

Athletic and cheerleader equipment; car decals, stadium signs and paw prints leading the way to the stadium; and

Sponsoring of senior parents' nights, homecoming dance, alumni party, fall athletic banquet and hospitality room at basketball tournaments.

Players of the Week are honored for football, basketball, soccer, tennis, baseball and track. Their photographs are displayed on an "Athletic Bulletin Board" and are printed in The Sea Coast Echo.

The club meets each Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the multi-purpose room at Bay High School. Interested persons are invited to attend.

Mississippi State football coach confident about fall season

At a recent gathering of approximately 225 coastal Mississippi State University alumni, MSU head football coach Jackie Sherrill challenged all MSU alumni on the Coast to establish a scholarship fund sending at least one student to MSU each year.

The event, held at the Great Southern Club in Gulfport, was co-sponsored by the Harrison County Chapter of the MSU Alumni Association and the Bulldog Club.

Sherrill promotes the university, as well as the football program on all his travels. He said, "I tell the football players that they are not special. They have to measure up scholastically just like all the other students on campus."

Sherrill was very excited and confident about the upcoming football season and strongly encouraged everyone to purchase season football tickets. He told the crowd, "If we are behind on the scoreboard, don't leave. You send a negative message to the players when you walk out."

A tax-deductible donation for the scholarship fund may be mailed to Michael Gilreath, Harrison County MSU Alumni secretary/treasurer, P.O. Box 1842, Gulfport, MS 39502.

Mississippi State University opens its football season on Aug. 31 by playing Cal State Fullerton in Starkville.

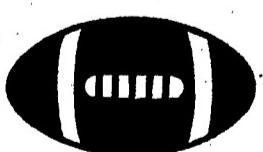

For more information about the MSU football season, contact the ticket office at 325-2600.

Pass pirates ready to sail into 1991 football season

BY TRACI BONNEY

A boatload of young Pass Christian Pirates will sail into the 1991 football season with plans to better their 1990 record.

Pass Christian, with a 7-3 as a unit. "We really need to make it as a team. There are no individual stars, so we just need to go out there and better the 7-3 season we had in 1990. We didn't make the playoffs; so that is our goal for this year."

overall record and a 3-2 season for the division, gave up only 83 points in 10 games last year.

Joseph E. Brown, starting his fourth year as head coach, said the offensive line will be young and inexperienced.

"We must avoid any serious injuries early on. We should have pretty good skill people. Our young players must grow at a rapid rate."

The team's defense will be a bit more seasoned, with six returning starters.

"We will have to play some players who did not play last season (who are seniors), along with a couple of sophomores to make the defense complete."

The Pirates lost quarterback Tracey Watts to graduation, and will fill his spot in the lineup with returning player Burnell Dedeaux. Dedeaux, who has held a starting spot on the team since his sophomore year, played wide receiver last season.

Also a starter at safety on defense, Dedeaux has a career total of 15 interceptions, with eight of those gained last year.

Dedeaux recognizes the need for the Pirates to function well gale as special teams coordinator.

The team's main formations are the I-formation for offense and 50 for defense.

Brown is guarded in his opinions about the Pirates' 1991 season. "It will be very hard to tell. A lot depends on injuries and how fast our young players come around. We've got to wait and see."

The Pirates play their first game September 6, when they host the Bay St. Louis Tigers at McDonald Stadium in Pass Christian.
